This beautiful book is in an illustrated hardcover , with matching illustrated jacket, B&W photograph of WWI cemetary and soldiers on front and back, with color poppies . Inside are 30 poems, along with color illustrations of reproductions of paintings from the British War Museum and from contemporary publications of the day . There is is an index to make it easy to find the poems by the titles, and another index to find them by their first lines, as well as a list of the poets in order of their poems appearance in the book ; There is also a short bio of each author , as well as a list of the illustrations and credits for the original artists / publishers of the paintings reproduced here, and an introduction by editor who compiled this book. The First World War - WWI - which was not called that at the time, of course, but also known as The Great War, and, optimistically, The War to End all Wars , lives on as a warning to future generations. Even tho few people alive today had the direct experience of World War One, many can trace its impact on their families, cities, and towns, and many have relatives who were impcted by...
