

Panda Trouble (Paperback)

By Tiffany Root

Tate Publishing Enterprises, United States, 2015. Paperback.
Book Condition: New. 178 x 127 mm. Language: English Brand New Book. Aah! yelled a small fire ant. Dragonflies! In the second book of the series, the Association of Insect Researchers, Bob Fire Ant has to overcome his fear of being eaten by dragonflies as he teams up with three dragonflies in a journey to China to save the Great Panda bears. Filled with interesting facts about dragonflies, panda bears, fire ants, and China that are interwoven into a cleverly written fictional story, Panda Trouble will delight children young and old. The three dragonflies you came to love in How Loud Can a Dragonfly Roar? continue on their fantastic journeys in this next book in the series. A glossary at the end contains words emboldened throughout the text that help children expand their vocabulary.
