The music fell upon his ear, each note fanning the flame that consumed him. And Olive sat there as if she had forgotten his presence; yet she knew the music she was playing so carelessly was holding him back as it might have held a wild beast. She came to the end of an exquisite bit from a waltz, a movement full of grace and lightsome swing, and in the brief pause before beginning something else, she heard his voice: That s pretty music you re playing. She hesitated an instant, for what he...
