So Lucy s life must be one big adventure, right? Not really. Her parents are more focused on their careers than their family, so they live on different continents. And Lucy s worrywart mother keeps her locked up inside the ambassador s residence for her own good. Lucy s had enough. So one day, she and a friend sneak off. When Lucy s kidnapped, things get decidedly more interesting. Using her knowledge of African animals, inventiveness, will, and courage, Lucy embarks on an adventure beyond her wildest dreams. A gripping tale, loosely based on real life events, this page-turner by a debut novelist will have readers riveted from start to finish.
