Convicted drug lord Gaspar lost his wife and family, but wants company and prison visits, so he arranges a marry with a beautiful call girl--but has no idea what he s getting into. The sweet, gentle Nan steps up to being a wife--and when Gaspar is attacked and harried by Feds and gangs, she strikes back with spectacular fury. What s a nice call girl like Nan doing in a place like the penitentiary? 1. When a divorced crime boss decided he d like conjugal visits, she won the personality segment of the cattle call. 2. She s safer in there than outside with the Feds and rival gangs trying to nail her. 3. Since he got battered into the hospital, she s been trying to patch up his shattered family. 4. She s starting to see the monthly trysts in the boneyard as a sort of haven from the cares of the world. 5. It s a great place for planning her para-military raids against the MS-13 wildboys who threaten her husband s life. 6. Irony. She s finding it comes with the territory. Our Nan is not your typical romance heroine. She s a high-priced take-out prostitute who marries the incarcerated border Godfather Gaspar for money and convenience, but gives him genuine affection and a fierce loyalty. Authentically kind and sweet-natured, she reacts to threats with a cold-eyed, homicidal efficiency. Desiring nothing but peaceful sleep, she detonates a war that shocks even veteran border cops. While having lived on illegal sex trade since she was twelve, she is scrupulously honest and has never even been arrested....
