Excerpt: . mr. bob sawyer S party Theke is a repose about Lant Street, in the borough of Southwark in the county of Surrey, which sheds a gentle melancholy upon the soul. A house in Lant Street would not come within the denomination of a first-rate residence, in the strict acceptation of the term; but if a man wished to abstract himself from the world, --to remove himself from the reach of temptation, --to place himself beyond the possibility of any inducement to look out of window, --he should by all means go to Lant Street. In this happy retreat are colonized a few clear-starchers, a sprinkling of journeymen bookbinders, one or two prison agents for the Insolvent Court, several small housekeepers who are employed in the Docks, a handful of milliners, and a seasoning of jobbing tailors. The majority of the inhabitants either direct...
